[SECRET REVEALED] How To Determine Your Yearly Income.

Hi *|Fname|*

Did you put an amount in your mind as I told you to yesterday?

Okay, if you did, how much do you want to make in 2020?

Here is the deal. In the next few minutes I will help you predict how much you will be able to make in 12 months, plus how to make sure that prediction comes to pass.

Now, get a pen and a paper. It is very important you get a pen and a paper before continuing with this email.

Done?

Alright.

Write the amount you would LIKE to make in 2019 on the paper. Let us assume you wrote 1 million naira.

If you divide that amount by 12 months in one year, you will get how much you need to make EVERY MONTH to hit that goal in one year.

Let's do it together. If you divide 1 million naira by 12 months, you would need to make N83,334 naira every month to hit that target.

Now, let us go further. If you divide that monthly income by 30, you will get how much you need to make every day to hit your monthly target.

So again, let us do it together. N83,334 divided by 30 and you have N2,777 every day.

Which means, if you make N2,777 every day in one month you'd make N83,334 naira every month. And if you keep that up, you'd be able to hit your 1 million naira target – comfortably.

The question I'm sure going on through your mind now is – how can I make N2,777 every day. Now, what if I showed you what you need to do in order to hit double that amount. That is, instead of making N83,334 you end up making N166,668 – or more, every month.

I know most businesses that would give you a daily profit of N3,000 per day will come with overhead cost and expenses that will take much of the initial profit. This means you need a business with very low overhead costs and expenses to easily achieve your financial target. A business that does not need a huge capital so you can easily start up.

When I started this income prediction exercise in 2017, one of the things that I did that helped me achieve my income goal was to monetize my skills online and I got paid handsomely for that.

You can set yourself up to have an extraordinary 2020 by maximizing the few weeks left in 2019 to equip yourself with the right skillset that are much needed.

Click the link below to take advantage of my discounted training where I teach you how to monetize your skillset by becoming a Virtual Assistant.

Tomorrow, I will show you the exact steps that I took to achieve my income target for 2018.

And what you need to do in order to hit your daily, monthly and ultimately your yearly target.

Don't miss my email tomorrow

Stay beautiful.

4. *|Fname|*, Here Is Your 2020 Income Blueprint

Hello *|Fname|*,

Yesterday I showed you how to come up with your daily, monthly and yearly money targets.

Now that we are done with that, I have a very special gift for you.

What's this gift?

I am about to show you – right now, the blueprint that will help you to hit the target you set yesterday effortlessly.

This same blueprint is what I use every year to hit my income goals.

Before I share this blueprint with you, I have news for you and it is not a very good news; This bad news is that a job can't help you hit the income goal that you set yesterday.

Here is why.

If you get a job now, your salary is fixed – and NO MATTER what you do, you will not be able to pass that fixed point. Unless you get promoted. Or get a bonus. So what happens when you need more money to take care of your needs?

Wait for promotion?

NO!

What you need is something that you can do, that will allow you to increase your income anytime you want and still have the time to do other things you love, eg taking good care of your family.

The only way to achieve this goal is that you must SELL SOMETHING.

Yes, you read right.

Let's say you start selling something worth 5,000 naira. If you sell three, that would be 15,000 naira and all you need to do to increase your income is to get more people to buy more of what you sell.

But then, what can you sell, how can you sell it without stress and still make more than enough every month. As I told you yesterday, the best kind of business is a business with very little overhead cost and expenses. This type of business is possible because the internet has made things very easy for us.

As a beginner in the online world in 2016, I started off by selling my skills online and I have created a complete course where I take you by the hand and put you through all you need to know as a beginner.

This course is very discounted for the next 5 people that click the button below:

5. I paid N5m for this tool. Now, have it for FREE

Beautiful *|Fname|*,

As your online business coach, I have to tell you this: There is ONE single tool that is very important for a successful business.

In fact, this tool is so important that I spend nothing less than ₦5m every year just to have it.

I spend such a high amount of money because the success of my business depends on it.

But now, I am giving this tool for you at no cost. Absolutely for FREE

So what is this all important tool?

It's a ten letter word: MENTORSHIP

YES! I spend well over ₦5m every year on mentorship.

Here's why:

When I began my online business, I had no mentor and I did a lot of things wrongly. This cost me a lot of money until something happened.

I encountered a mentor and we started working together and within 3 months of meeting him, my income multiplied by 6!

That was when my eyes opened!

*|Fname|*, permit me to reiterate that having a mentor is not a nice-to-have. It's a must-have!

Having a mentor would help you avoid making silly mistakes and save you from losing money.

I did not begin my business with a mentor and I regret it till today but I don't want the same thing to happen to you.

That is why I want to hold your hand and personally mentor you when you register for The Millionaire Housewife Virtual Assistant Course.

So tell me now:

You have a tested and proven online business to do - The Millionaire Housewife Virtual Assistant business

You have a mentor waiting to mentor you - Me, Temi Ajibewa

6. “Temí, I have not been able to sleep!”

Hello *|Fname|*,

I am excited to write this email to you because of the responses I got yesterday from Precious. Precious got my email yesterday where I gave the 24 hour ultimatum to get my Millionaire Housewife Virtual Assistance Business Course at 90% discount and asked me to extend the period.

This is an excerpt from the email that Precious sent to me this morning:

‘Help me Temí because I have not been able to sleep oh. After I read the email you sent to me yesterday, I could not sleep throughout the night and that is why I am sending you this email to express my situation. I have been trying to meet up with the 24 hours deadline, but the money I am expecting is not coming through yet. I am really interested in taking your Virtual Assistant course and improve my financial situation. Kindly extend the deadline for an extra 24 hours and help me escape poverty.’

Just look at that!

*|Fname|* I don’t know if you are in the same situation with Precious, but I know that you are yet to register for the Millionaire Housewife VA course and that is why I want to give you a final opportunity to grab the 90% discount that I am giving for this training.

This new opportunity will expire in 24 hours. And the countdown begins right now.

7. Do you think Chioma is special?

Hello *|Fname|*,

I want to tell you about Chioma. But before I do that let me digress a bit.

I hope you know that your chance to register for the Millionaire Housewife VA Course ends in 12 hours.

Here is what that means...

It means that within the next 2 hours, two things could happen:

1. You could change your financial status forever; or
2. You could remain in your present condition

The choice is yours.

The fact that you have waited till this moment and you have not registered for the Millionaire Housewife VA Course suggests that you are likely to choose option 2.

But I don't want to believe that.

Why would anyone want to remain in their present state instead of choosing financial freedom?

I know you are trying and that is why I want to tell you about Chioma and how she went through a lot of struggle before she eventually said enough is enough...

Chioma is one of my students that I am most proud of and her story is a very inspiring one.

In fact, her journey to her first Million was much faster than my own because of her level of determination.

Now here is my sincere thought:

I believe that you are not a lazy woman and I believe that you want to succeed.

But I want to tell you that wealth and financial success is not reserved for some select group of people, it is your right.

So let me tell you this: Chioma is not special in any way, she just had the determination to succeed.

The remainder of 2019 and 2020 can become very fabulous if you want it to.

Why?

I am giving you all you need to attain success;

- A proven business model with low expenses and overhead cost.
- A Mentor that has been in your situation and understands your journey.
- A support group of like minded women to improve your knowledge and network.
- 3 bonuses to make your journey very smooth.

Now that I am offering you all the tools you need to succeed. You need to answer this question now:

Are you determined to succeed as well, *|Fname|* ?

Remember that the 12 hours countdown to register for The Millionaire Housewife VA Course has already started.

If you need any form of clarification or have anything you want to discuss with me, feel free to reply this email so we can trash it out.
